Welcome to
E.C.J.C.
40th ANNIVERSARY

As East Central Junior College enters its fortieth year, the 1969 Wo-He-Lo has made an attempt to preserve this and every well deserved event—academic, social and religious. We, as members of the Wo-He-Lo staff, students, faculty and administration at E.C.J.C. have every reason to be proud of our college. Academically she is a top rated institution. The students of E.C.J.C. are blessed with adequate facilities—modern classrooms and laboratories and an adequate volume library —each of which is increasing yearly.

Socially, E.C.J.C. can boast of her many fine clubs and organizations, along with all other interesting social aspects of the well-rounded social life of our campus. Religiously, she is staffed and prepared to give adequate and necessary guidance to all faiths.

However, the blessings of E.C.J.C. students never stands still for there is always an air of expansion present to take care of the growing student body. An addition to the existing science building has been realized; a vocational and technical complex and a technological agriculture building are nearing completion with construction already begun on a fine arts building.

In 1968-69 we celebrate forty years of achievement and growth in property and prestige. We pay tribute to the far-sighted founders of this institution who had the vision to see what a community college such as this could mean to you. We honor those East Central graduates who, through the years, in the state and nation, have, by their achievements, build up extended esteem her Alma Mater that the Wo-He-Lo of 1969 delights to extol.

730 STRONG

Dates may be tedious, dry-as-dust figures, monotonous to learn and remember. Or dates may represent exciting peaks of history and experience that stimulate over and over memories of thrilling moments that man and nations love to recall and to celebrate.

The date of 1928 was only the prelude of many such memories in the minds of numerous individuals in the East Central area of the state of Mississippi. In that year East Central Junior College opened doors to experiences that would become golden opportunities to every high school graduate in the five counties of Leake, Neshoba, Newton, Scott and Winston.

Our "East Central" has progressed through four decades. Each student who comprises part of this total record enrollment must charge himself to continue to lift the standards and prestige of this institution which has contributed much to its district and is adding an increasing influence on the state.

TODAY

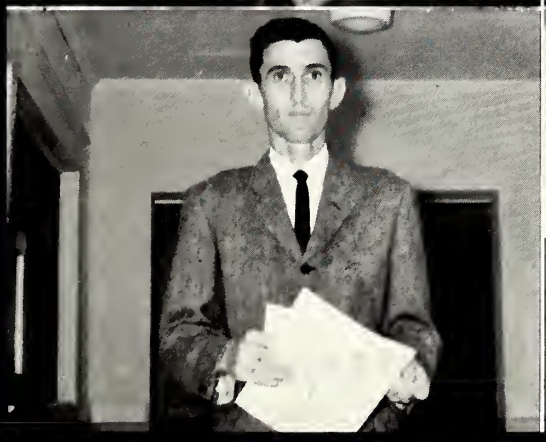
A BROADENED CURRICULA

The first faculty at East Central consisted of two teachers. In forty years faculty members have increased to 42. They are well trained in their specific field and make learning and education at East Central a living experience.

Even as the faculty has increased and improved, so the facilities and equipment have been supplemented to provide practical knowledge to students in almost every field.

As our world of today changes, so East Central keeps up with its pace, our qualified instructors and leaders help us to live up to our name of College.

The Wo-He-Lo staff and students believe that we have the BEST leadership and instructors that can be afforded.



QUALIFIED INSTRUCTION

LASTING FRIENDSHIPS

"The world's a stage . . ." With each year of East Central's development, it is easier to see the part it was intended to play in the educational sphere of the district and state.

School spirit increases as we play bigger and better teams in sports—and we have all kinds at East Central.

The world of clubs and organizations and all other extracurricular activities of the life at East Central exemplify its many lasting friendships.

EXPANSION

GROWTH

New faces, new buildings are seen at East Central Junior College. Construction and renovation have never stopped over the years, and today it strains to provide classroom facilities for the ever-growing student body. The Vocational and Technical Complex is now a symbol of hard work fulfilled in becoming a college. It and other buildings that are also nearing completion are a physical sign of growth which is definitely felt by each member of the student body, faculty and administration.

Miss Gladys Bryant—BSU Director

Rev. John Lambert Neil—Wesley Director

DEDICATION

There are those that teach by standing at the podium of a classroom and giving information. They have their task and often it is done well. But there are also those who teach, not by standing before a podium, but by walking among men—a lesson in living every day. Two of these are our very own—Miss Gladys Bryant and the Rev. John Lambert Neil, friends of the school but most of all friends of the student.

Bro. Neil's indefatigable spirit is the inspiration of youth and the envy of adults. But his interest and concern for our students is immeasurable. He guides, aids and inspires not only the Wesleyans, but all groups who observe his untiring efforts to be of service, pointing toward God and a meaningful life.

Miss Bryant, not here so long as Bro. Neil, but here for the second term of service, also inspires students to learn that becoming educated is developing the whole man; physically, mentally and spiritually. Because she long ago learned to follow the gleam, she seeks to show others the way to a full life lived in God's plan.

A poem written by Edgar A. Guest well exemplifies these two dedicated consecrated Christians:

"I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day;
I'd rather one should walk with me than merely tell the way.
The eye's a better pupil and more willing than the ear,
Fine counsel is confusing, but example's always clear;
And the best of all the preachers are the men who live their creed.
For to see the good in action is what everybody needs."

Professional excellence, personal greatness and strong dedication unite to engender two sterling individuals.

Because of their outstanding service and contribution to East Central Junior College, the annual staff humbly dedicates this the 1969 Wo-He-Lo to Miss Gladys Bryant, Student Secretary of the BSU and the Rev. John Lambert Neil, Director of Wesley—OUR FRIENDS IN THE MINISTRY.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

East Central Junior College may well mark the year 1968-69 as one of her best because of you as students, the alumni, and her many friends.

The desire of the institution to serve you, its district, state and nation has necessitated an enlargement of the physical plant, the offering of new programs and the expansion of others. As an institution we are very pleased to have been a part of your training for your position in life.

Be aware of the many issues of life, and the qualities which make the solid values achievable. Work diligently, think seriously, apply yourself arduously and look to the future for your greatest success and happiness. However, if you must look back may this book serve as a recollection of your happy years at East Central.

ENGLISH

The East Central English Department is primarily a course in communication, and is organized to include the five activities of thinking, listening, reading, writing, and speaking. Its purpose is to give the student both an understanding of these basic activities as they are related to the general process of learning and to all intellectual development, and to give him through actual experimentation and drill, a degree of efficiency in each activity.

ART

The creative work of the Art Department has been seen by every East Central student in his day-to-day activities. This is the goal of the department; to bring an art experience not only to a talented few but to everyone in the college.

To accomplish this, members of the various art classes have displayed their work for the enjoyment of the students and faculty.

AGRICULTURE

Training programs in the Department of Agriculture have as their purpose the preparation of students for better citizenship, for more efficient farm operation, for professional service work, for leading agriculture, and for various fields of business in which a knowledge of scientific agriculture is of value.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The objective of the French course is to acquire proficiency in reading literary selections, in speaking conversational French and in writing the language. To accomplish the goal of fluency in the language and a familiarity with the culture, students discuss changes and current events in the country.

HOME ECONOMICS

A program designed to meet the needs of the college girl and to train her for her future duties as a homemaker is the goal of the East Central Home Economics Department. The department offers an interesting and varied program, presenting meaningful and realistic courses in family relations, personal finances, and general homemaking.

PSYCHOLOGY

This department is concerned with giving the students an understanding of the basic principles governing child development. Some of the topics considered are: growth, emotion, motivation, personality, intelligence, and learning.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

At East Central the Religious Education Department has for its aim the familiarization of the student with the Bible. The Bible is the basic textbook; but other text and materials are used. It is the desire of the instructors to create within the students a sincere appreciation of the Bible.

ATHLETIC

The major sports here at East Central include: football basketball and baseball. Men who are exceptional in these sports not only participate, but also develop ability to accept victory and defeat in a sportsmanship manner.

Mrs. Kay Smith
A.A., B.S., M.E.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Good sportsmanship and physical fitness are developed by the Physical Education Department here at East Central.

During this physical training both girls and boys learn the fundamentals of such sports as tennis, baseball, volleyball, and basketball.

Frank M. Cross
B.S., M.S.

NATURAL SCIENCES

In this age of growing scientific and technological discovery and development, a basic understanding of all scientific areas is necessary. East Central offers a selection of varied courses designed to meet this need.

SPEECH AND READING

Speech at East Central is designed to give the student practical knowledge and practice of all forms of speaking as used in every-day life. The fundamental elements of all oral communications are discussed and put into practice.

Teaching enables the student to read faster; therefore, he may comprehend the material better.

Bruce W. Peterson

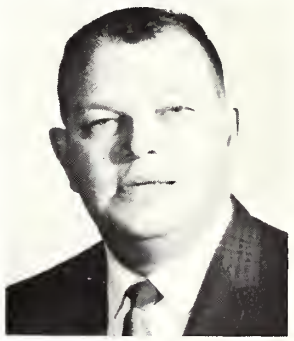
MATHEMATICS

The East Central Mathematics Department is one of the best in the State. Facilities used in the department enable students who sincerely desire to increase their knowledge through reading and problem solving.

Included in the math program are two years of college algebra, plane trigonometry, Calculus I and II, and technical math I, and II.

J. E. Smith
B.S., M.Ed.

John Atchley
B.A.



PRE-ENGINEERING

The students in this department learn the fundamentals of technical drafting in engineering including geometric constructions; the theory of ortho graphic projections of point, line, and plane; axonometric projection; and the theory of logarithms and logarithmic equations.
